

Police Chief

The Tuftonboro Selectmen are accepting applications for the position of Full-Time Police Chief.

Minimum Qualifications: Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice, Police Science, Psychology, or related field is preferred. At least ten-years of experience in a police department or law enforcement agency; or any equivalent combination of education and experience which demonstrates possession of the required knowledge, skills, and abilities. Employees of this class must meet all qualifications for the position of Police Officer. Candidates may be required to complete physical agility testing, oral board interview, polygraph, medical and psychological examinations, and an extensive background investigation.

Competitive Salary

Benefits: Full-time sworn police officers will receive a benefits package including: health insurance, dental insurance, vacation and sick time, 12 paid holidays, and participation in the New Hampshire Retirement System.

Interested candidates must submit a cover letter, and resume to TownAdmin@TuftonboroNH.gov or it can be dropped off at Town Hall.

Questions can be directed to TownAdmin@TuftonboroNH.gov

EOE